How to Save Money at Foreign ATMs

When traveling, avoid unfavorable exchange rates and higher fees by sticking to local currency.

Anyone who has traveled outside the U.S. and withdrawn money from a foreign ATM has likely faced with the decision of whether to let the ATM provide the currency conversion or not. Often, even though you are withdrawing the local currency, the ATM will offer you a choice: to charge your IDB-IIC FCU debit or credit card in the local currency (Euros in Spain, British pounds in England, etc.) or in U.S. dollars.

So, which do you choose? Local currency or U.S. dollars? Always choose the local currency. If you choose U.S. dollars, the foreign bank will choose an exchange rate that is likely not the best available and you may also incur additional fees.

Open an Account from Anywhere!

Our online application allows you to open a new account in as little as 10 minutes, from a café, your couch... or virtually anyplace.

Now opening a new account for you or your family members is easier than ever! Forget about long visits to our branch and a stack of paperwork.

Here are the steps you will need to follow to open an account online:

Step 1: Visit www.idbcreditu.org and click “Open an Account.”

Step 2: Complete a 10-minute application.

Step 3: Fund your account with a minimum of $50 dollars. You can transfer the funds from another IDB-IIC FCU account, a U.S. credit or debit card, or mail a check or money order.

Step 4: To avoid delays in your application, ensure to upload the required documentation.

And that’s it. Whether you’re a new member applying for your first account, or already part of the IDB-IIC FCU family in need of a secondary account, our online account application has you covered.
